

Bring Your Golden Touch to Help Hillsides Foster Care Kids

“Tangerine Dreams: A Jazzy Affair,” last year’s theme for the annual benefit for Hillsides, a foster care children’s charity in Pasadena, was a spectacular hit. Set in a private club in downtown Los Angeles, the 96-year charity raised over $380,000 for its services and programs to prevent child abuse. With 300 guests bidding for auction items, generous donors and attendees contributed to the charity’s highest net profit benefit. Engaging bidders throughout the live auction was celebrity auctioneer, NBC 4 weathercaster Fritz Coleman, who will once again join us for our 2010 Annual Benefit, “The Midas Touch,” chaired by Courtney Saavedra. The event will be held on February 27.

Emmy-Award winning actor Jean Smart shared her personal story of her commitment to the foster care children who live at Hillsides while auctioning a necklace she wore that evening. With her support and the support of event sponsors, companies who donated auction items, and guests, Hillsides Annual Benefit will continue to garner the funds needed to provide much-needed services to our children in crisis and their families. During the State’s economic crisis and budget cuts of nearly $460,000 to our residential program, we need your support more than ever.

“By sponsoring our event, your touch transforms gold into a much more precious element, hope. You can provide children with the true riches of trust and love,” says Courtney.

We hope you’ll add your golden touch to our next benefit to help make our children’s place a golden environment filled with hope, love, and courage. This evening is the gold standard for all to come that will touch and change the lives of many.
